

2022 CORPORATE EXPERIENCES

NETWORKING | HOSPITALITY | COTERIES

WELCOME

After two years significantly interrupted by COVID-19, Season 2022 presents itself as a long-awaited return to normality.

In 2021, your absence was certainly felt. The moments in which we could reunite in-person were few and far between as rows of empty aisles again replaced the passionate sea of red, white and black.

While we missed seeing you at our home of Marvel Stadium, your support from afar did not go by unnoticed. Despite falling short in our performances this year, your loyalty and commitment persevered throughout the trying circumstances.

Now, as we put in the work towards a much-improved 2022, I am pleased to look to the future and invite you to enjoy the Saints' hospitality and corporate offerings for the season ahead.

The President's Table function, presented by the Halos, will once again hold pride of place in our men's calendar as our premium game-day experience.

Offering gourmet food and wine, you'll hear from special guest speakers, discover the latest from club leaders and rub shoulders with some of St Kilda's most high-profile supporters.

Whether it be to entertain your clients in style or cheer on the Saints in luxurious surrounds, the President's Table function is the perfect way to elevate your game-day experience to the next level.

Those looking for a more private setting will be able to access corporate suites at all our home and away games at Marvel Stadium, while the Premier Lounge will also return for a more relaxed offering at selected blockbuster matches.

STK Business is also back for 2022 and promises to expand even further, with our networking program offering a diverse range of business partners across a wide range of industries.

2022 will additionally see a suite of AFLW offerings as senior coach Nick Dal Santo prepares for his maiden season at the helm.

Player sponsorships across both our women's and men's programs are a terrific way for you or your business to directly invest in the development of your favourite player.

I hope to see you back at the football soon and strongly encourage you to explore all our corporate offerings and contact our team should you have any questions.
